

Personal Mention

Roy McCabe of Vale was an Ontario business visitor last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. McNulty are in Portland this week attending the Rose Festival.

H. R. Udick was called to Boise Wednesday to attend the funeral of his father who died there quite suddenly last Sunday.

H. L. Peterson left Sunday evening for Portland to see the roses at the best and inspect the offerings of coast furniture houses.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Blackaby left Tuesday evening for Portland and other coast points. They expect to be back here about Monday next.

Mrs. Susan Chapman, who has been visiting Mrs. Cronin for the past month, left Friday evening for Seattle where she will make her future home.

Dorothy Turner and Vella Cronin, as Honor Guard Delegates, left Tuesday evening for Corvallis to attend the State Honor Guard Convention to be held there the latter part of this week.

According to advices received from William Blackaby who arrived recently at Camp Mills, New York, from over seas, he expects to leave there soon for Camp Lewis for final discharge from the service.

Fred W. Canfield and Ben Thomas are fishermen. They are willing to, and did, last Saturday evening drive into the heart of Idaho's mountains in the quest of their favorite variety of the finny tribe. They travelled 100 miles in their jaunt, slept under the stars, waded the streams and came home tired but happy, rewarded with having succeeded in charming 22 piscatorial beauties from the waters of Rock creek.

just suppose you went into a restaurant and asked for a steak and suppose the waiter brought you hash, saying that hash would be just as good for you, besides they had plenty of hash and made a larger profit on hash.

What would you do?

Of course you would walk out and go to another restaurant where they served what you ordered.

Now, just suppose you went in to a store and asked for a pair of Two Horse Brand Boys' Overalls the best made, the best fitting, the strongest, the longest wearing, "the new pair FREE if they rip kind," and suppose the salesman said we have none of the Two Horse Brand Kind, here's another brand—it is just as good.

What should you do?

You should walk out and go to a store where they give you what you ask for.

When you order steak you don't want hash, and when you ask for Two Horse Brand Boys' Overalls you don't want an imitation.

This Trade Mark
